The emotional challenges and stresses of daily life can seem overwhelming. You know you need help, but are not sure you can afford it. It is hard to ask for help, but it is a healthy and important thing to do. When you are ready to take that step, MCS is here for you.

MCS is a nonprofit organization offering high-quality, low cost counseling and psychotherapy to adults in the metro Atlanta area who otherwise could not afford such services.

All of our services are provided on an affordable, sliding-scale fee based on income and number of dependents. Experienced and caring professionals provide therapy in a confidential, safe, and supportive environment.

Our Services

MCS offers individual, couples, and group psychotherapy for a wide variety of mental health concerns, including:

- Depression
- Anxiety
- Stress
- Coping with chronic and/or terminal illness
- Eating disorders
- Addiction Recovery
- Women's issues
- Childhood abuse and trauma
- Relationship issues
- Family concerns
- Grief and loss
- Personal growth
- Post-traumatic stress
- Sexual identity/orientation issues.

Our Location

MCS is conveniently located in northeast Atlanta near I-85 and Clairmont Road, just north of the Century Center office complex. Please visit our website for directions.
